inder the existing conditions private Outch importers having such contracts for American foodstuffs should apply the Department of Commerce of the sion to have such goods consigned to er bought by the Dutch government.

rused to make any further comment, it is known that the American government has no way of interfering with such a monopoly as Holland has created such an act being entirely within carry their flour to Dutch ports is not known here, but a move in that direction seemed to officials to offer a possible solution of the problem. Otherwise the effect of the monopoly will be, it is believed, to bring the Netherlands government into the market as a curchaser of flour, with the probability that Holland would force American Jenlers to sell at a lower price than that at which other nations obtain.

Hibben Says Nations Must Be Held to Same Moral Code as Individuals. New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 11-

John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University, at the Charter Day exercises of Rutgers College today, said that after the war there will be a complete reconstruction of the ideas which govern the world at pres-

"There will no more be a double code of morals, one for the individual and an entirely different one for the state. Governments will be held to account, and will have no more right to cast aside their treaties and other obligations in time of war than an individual has to repudiate his debts. It will be impossible for a few men to throw away thousands of lives by
